2010 Competition Year Sponsor Request

The National Barrel Horse Association (NBHA) is an international equine association of over 23,000 barrel racers of all ages and experience who compete for prize money, awards, and points in local events throughout the year so they may qualify to compete in NBHA District, State and World Championships. New Mexico District 1 has approximately 140 members ranging from age 5 to 65, making this a truly multigenerational family sport. NBHA estimates that each member has 4 family or support persons that are also involved in our sport. Sponsorship opportunities in New Mexico District 1 equates to advertising for your business, therefore all sponsorships are tax deductible. 100% of the profits from our 18 races and sponsorship drives goes directly back to awards and added money to our members. Our 2010 finals will be held in March, 2011 at McGee Park in Farmington, NM and will include a variety of competitive races that will draw contestants and their families from the entire southwest region. Below are the categories for sponsorship:

$800 - Year End Saddle -with business name stamped

$800 - Incentive Saddle -with business name stamped

$500 - Finals Barrel Sponsor

$100 - Show date sponsor
